A rustic period home, ideally placed in a quiet residential area with a pleasant mountain backdrop. The interior is perfectly complemented by modern and traditional design elements throughout, with a country kitchen that highlights a fantastic wood stove from yesteryear and a spacious dining area with access onto a private deck. Be welcomed into the living room by cottage-style wood detailing, floating floors and an open hearth fireplace. Both bedrooms are adorned by large windows and their own unique charm, one of which features another original fireplace and the other with a built-in wardrobe. The home is also serviced by natural gas heating, a tiled bathroom that retains its older style appeal and an external laundry. The outdoor space includes a fully fenced yard with a beautiful established garden that provides you with a sense of seclusion, as well as a partially enclosed front porch, single garage and off street parking. Located with easy access to town amenities, including 1.4km to the Lithgow Workies Club, 1.6km to Main Street, 1.8km to the Lithgow Blast Furnace Park and 2km to Lithgow Train Station. Whether you're looking to create a peaceful oasis or cosy family home, this property has the potential.
