

33 Mackenzie Street, Bondi Junction, NSW 2022

Sold House

Monday, 18 March 2024

33 Mackenzie Street, Bondi Junction, NSW 2022

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Edward Brown
0414366553

Contact agent

Freestanding to the north side and bathed in natural light, this wide-fronted Federation semi holds a prized urban village setting at the end of a wide cul-de-sac leading to Westfield's retail hub and a world of fashion and entertainment. A spacious three-storey layout features an upper level parents' retreat with the lower level living space opening to an entertainer's courtyard and a sunny dine-in kitchen featuring a north-facing sundeck. Built c1906 and retaining its authentic period charm with the original front of the home graced with soaring pressed metal ceilings, the three-bedroom home comes with the massive bonus of double parking via Walter Street and is just 600m to Queens Park with Bronte Road cafes and around the corner. Enjoy a connected eastern suburbs lifestyle just 500m to the station with close proximity to Centennial Park, schools and the east's best beaches.

- 6m frontage with a traditional bullnose front verandah
- Polished original hardwood floors, ornate 3.1m ceilings
- 3 large bedrooms, 2 with a fireplace, built-in robes
- Upper level master bed with district views and a study
- Sunny dine-in Caesarstone kitchen, 6 burner gas cooktop
- Miele appliances, huge storage, 7m north-facing deck
- Lower level living room with bi-folds to a paved courtyard
- Stylish family bathroom plus a laundry and powder room
- Large cellar, reverse cycle air, Ventis home ventilation
- Surround sound, outdoor shower, secure double parking
- Double parking via Gardiner Street, 150m to Bar Lucio