AUCTION

In the good company of neighbouring expansive homes that set the tone, this vast residence will draw you in with its sheer size and entice you to stay with its idyllic surrounds underpinned by a backdrop of the expansive view of the Dandenongs beyond. Marvelously maintained and waiting to bear witness to a new generation, this dual living home with five bedrooms plus an office and the basement games room of your dreams, will accommodate and evolve with your growing family. Zoned for Wheelers Hill PS and close to Caulfield Grammar. Behind a façade of manicured gardens, the home comprises a formal lounge and dining room anchored by a gas fireplace through to a generous family zone - both framed with extensive glazing through which to gaze at the weather rolling in over the Dandenongs from the comfort of your lounge. The large kitchen caters from the heart of the home and is appointed with terrific storage, stone benches and a full suite of Miele appliances. Benefitting from the natural slope of the land, a bright basement level provides an ample games room alongside a wine & bar room and storage. Offering both connectivity and privacy, each of these communal spaces spill onto the gardens which host sheltered pergolas to entertain from and space to run around shaded by a mature Elm tree. The bedroom wing bestows a master bedroom with walk in robe and a quality ensuite as well as four further bedrooms and a bright office served by a sparkling family bathroom with tub, a fitted laundry and an additional toilet. This impressive home also features a double garage, hardwood floors, ducted gas heating and RC/AC on 1254sqm approx of land. Zoned for Wheelers Hill Primary school and Brentwood Secondary College as well as being within easy reach of Caulfield Grammar. Close to the popular Code 5 café, buses, Wheelers Hill village, Big Watermelon and Brandon Park Shopping Centre. Also near a variety of small neighbourhood playgrounds, the offerings of Jells Park and many sporting clubs for the whole family.
