Welcome to our spacious rental property nestled in a charming neighbourhood! This large home boasts a beautifully maintained garden, perfect for enjoying leisurely afternoons or hosting gatherings with friends and family. Inside, you'll find a kitchen equipped with ample storage space and a reliable oven, ideal for whipping up your favourite meals. The bedrooms feature Queenslander windows, adding character and a touch of nostalgia to the space. Convenience is key with this property, as it's ideally located near Banyo Park and the library, making it easy to enjoy outdoor activities and access resources. Plus, commuting is a breeze with the train station and bus routes right next door, providing seamless transportation options. For everyday essentials and shopping needs, Woolworths shopping precinct is just down the road, ensuring you have everything you need within reach.
