

33 May Road, Toorak, Vic 3142

 Real Estate

Sold House

Thursday, 12 October 2023

33 May Road, Toorak, Vic 3142

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 295 m2

Type: House

James McCormack
0410503389

Fiona Counsel
0409516916

Contact agent

In close proximity to Hawksburn Village this captivating solid brick freestanding residence's sensational single level dimensions are completely irresistible from the very first moment. Set against a glorious private north-facing garden backdrop, this classic elegance is blended with contemporary style through gallery-like spaces welcoming in plenty of northern light creating an inviting setting for relaxing or entertaining. An extra wide arched hall featuring high ceilings, Baltic pine floors and Victorian highlights introduces the generous main bedroom with en-suite and walk in robe, a large Second bedroom with full height robes and desk, third spacious bedroom or home office and a stylish bathroom. Beneath soaring skylight vaulted ceilings, the expansive living domain with a striking wood fire heater opens through expansive sliding doors to the idyllic private north-facing garden surrounded by established Magnolias and Manchurian pears. The rear deck and adjacent paved area creates a perfect environment for outdoor living, from intimate gatherings to large celebrations. A large inviting dining room, open to a private courtyard, is adjacent to a gourmet entertainers' kitchen appointed with a 90cm Smeg oven, Miele Dishwasher and Ceaserstone benches. In a coveted leafy pocket only metres to the fabulous Hawksburn Village shops and restaurants, Hawksburn station, trams, Prahran Market, Orrong Park and schools, it includes remote gate and secure off street parking, video intercom, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, RC/air-conditioners, designer lighting, 120 bottle wine cellar, Euro-laundry, irrigation, large garden shed, and rear ROW access. Land size: approx. 295sqm.