

33 Norfolk Crescent, Bundoora, Vic 3083

Sold House

Thursday, 29 February 2024

33 Norfolk Crescent, Bundoora, Vic 3083

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 581 m2

Type: House

David Moxon
0394675444

Leanne Joyce
0394675444

$820,000

The property at 33 Norfolk Crescent, Bundoora, offers a tranquil and comfortable living experience in a peaceful neighbourhood. This delightful 3-bedroom residence is move-in ready and showcases numerous appealing features. The three bedrooms are equipped with built-in robes, with the master bedroom boasting additional amenities like a split system and ceiling fan for added comfort. The spacious lounge and dining area are well-lit with natural light from large windows, providing an inviting space for entertaining guests. The updated kitchen is a culinary haven, furnished with stainless steel appliances including an oven, hotplates, and dishwasher. A central family bathroom, separate toilet, and a large undercover deck for alfresco dining cater to both practical needs and leisurely pursuits, overlooking a flat backyard offering space for relaxation or recreational activities, while a large garage secured behind gates provides peace of mind for vehicle storage. Recent renovations including new carpets, blinds, freshly painted interiors, and a new driveway contribute to the home's renewed freshness and appeal. Conveniently located near Bundoora Primary & Secondary schools, La Trobe University, tram and bus stops, as well as Polaris & Bundoora Square for amenities, and Gresswell Forest for outdoor activities, residents enjoy easy access to various conveniences and leisure opportunities. Embrace the serenity and convenience offered by life at 33 Norfolk Crescent – a perfect retreat awaiting its new occupants.