This easy-care, low maintenance property is well-presented split over two levels, the ground level offers a double carport with direct access to the front door. Downstairs is a spacious room with a built-in robe as well as an ensuite and laundry with direct access outside. This area could be used as the main bedroom or as a second living space. Upstairs is the open plan living, dining and kitchen with double glass doors opening onto a large sundeck, the perfect space for entertaining. There are a further two bedrooms, both generous in size and featuring built-in wardrobes. The main bathroom is centrally located with separate toilet. The house is set on a fenced, level block and is located within easy walking distance to Mount Nelson shop, pharmacy, local primary school, Hobart College and Mount Nelson medical centre. Easy commute into the city with the home on a bus route and a quick 8 minute drive into Hobart CBD. A great option for those wanting to enter the market in the popular suburb of Mount Nelson.
