Nestled in the heart of Rye, 33 Sheila Street invites you to embrace seaside living. This well presented home offers more than just a house but a lifestyle, where convenience meets the tranquillity of the ocean breeze. Step inside this well-built home and be greeted by spacious interiors flooded with natural light. Two well sized bedrooms, central bathroom, separate toilet separate laundry, spacious kitchen and generously size lounge space are what makes the home. Outside, a lush garden and copious amounts of space to add an outdoor entertainment area, providing the ideal backdrop for summer barbecues or lazy Sunday afternoons. Immerse yourself in the coastal lifestyle as you enjoy the short stroll to the beach or explore the nearby cafes, boutique shops, and scenic coastal trails. With a large rear yard, side drive with garage and space to renovate and extend to your hearts content and all the modern conveniences, 33 Sheila Street is not just a house; it's a seaside sanctuary where every day feels like a vacation. Don't miss the opportunity to make this coastal dream home your own. Contact us today and step into a life of coastal elegance and relaxation. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
