Nestled in the heart of Rochedale South, this double-storey brick and tile home unveils charm and elegance from every angle. From the moment you step inside, you will know you have found the perfect sanctuary for your family. Ascending the front staircase, you are greeted onto the front balcony with sweeping views of the surrounding landscape. Stepping through the front door, you will find a spacious living area adorned with polished timber flooring that graces the entire upper level, adding a touch of elegance to each step. Leading towards the heart of the home you will encounter a cosy kitchen with its large benchtop, modern appliances including dishwasher, beckoned you to unleash your culinary creativity and create memories that would last a lifetime. The upper level also features each bedroom thoughtfully designed with ceiling fans and large windows, ensuring comfort and ventilation year-round while allowing plenty of natural light to flood the space. Indulge in the luxury of the main bathroom, complete with a separate toilet room, shower, and bath, providing a tranquil haven for self-care and relaxation. Turning to the rear balcony, you are marvelled at the serene vista and sunset viewing, the perfect backdrop for quiet moments of reflection or lively gatherings with loved ones. Say hello to spacious family living with a touch of added flexibility as the ground floor comes with a granny flat with its own separate entrance where a spacious living area awaits, a well-appointed kitchenette stands ready for whipping up delicious meals. Just beyond the living area, a guest room awaits, offering privacy and comfort with its own private bathroom. With the granny flat conveniently situated on the ground level, family relatives, visiting guests, or independent teenagers can enjoy their own space while remaining close to loved ones. Outside, the crowning jewel of this magnificent home is the sparkling in ground swimming pool, glistening invitingly in the backyard. With a brand new poolside patio for entertainment and plenty of yard for the children to play, you will be destined to have found the perfect oasis for your family to call home.
