Mid-century gem – saunter to the bay & village Positioned on an expansive corner allotment with dual access from both Whitehead and David streets, this 934m² (approx) property with adorable mid-century beach house invites sun-soaked and serene seaside getaways, along with endless possibilities to extend and create your own coastal dream retreat, available for immediate settlement prior to Christmas. Giving the successful purchaser the opportunity to enjoy the current home while being able to organise plans and permits for a new build. An architect's-own home originally constructed in 1965, the three-bedroom residence has been cleverly designed to harness a north-facing aspect off the living room, while the high skillion ceiling, walls of glass and clerestory window extensions showcase the distinctive aesthetic of mid-century design. Sliding glass doors on all four sides encourage a unity with the outdoors and open to an alfresco dining deck on the north side and a sheltered alfresco to the south with a steamy in-deck spa begging to be slipped into with a glass of bubbles by the moonlight. Tastefully updated over the years while staying true to its original design and character, the home is complemented by a modern kitchen with taupe cabinetry, a gas cooktop, stainless-steel oven and dishwasher, as well as an updated bathroom. An easy stroll to the bay beach, yacht squadron and village in one direction, and a pleasant walk to the ocean reserve in the other, located just a short drive from golf courses and hot springs. The property includes timber floors, plush carpeting and ceiling fans in the bedrooms, an outdoor shower, loads of sublevel storage, electronic gates to David Street opening to generous off-street parking area and abundant Airbnb appeal.
