Offers Closing Monday 13th May at 3:00pm unless sold prior. Take your bayside experience to a whole new level in one of Port's oldest surviving terrace homes now providing modern accommodation ideal for an inner-city lifestyle. One of just five brick homes that make up Peckham Terrace c.1859, its character filled proportions have witnessed the early days of settlement and the establishment of Melbourne's ports, the excitement of the Gold Rush, the construction of many of Port's most important heritage and contemporary buildings and, of course, the extraordinary expansion of Bay Street from its early 19th century beginnings to the iconic retail and dining destination it is today. Beyond its rich character façade, a traditional hallway introduces a living room with OFP, adjoining dining and a fully equipped open plan kitchen before two spacious bedrooms with excellent BIRs share a central modern bathroom. Includes split heating/cooling and timber flooring. Step out the gate to Bay Street's retail, dining, and entertainment options, walk to the beach and foreshore promenade, light rail links to the CBD, Lagoon Reserve, Gasworks Arts Park and South Melbourne Market. Enjoy a blissful inner-city lifestyle in a superb slice of Port's history.
