$385,000.00

This quality built 1955 home is situated on two allotments on one Title of approximately 1595m². This home is in immaculate original condition, having had only two owners in its lifetime. Step back into the 50's with high ceilings, generous sized rooms and plenty of original features. Comprising a formal entry, 3 generous size bedrooms, a grand size Lounge room complete with a separate formal dining room, a family size eat in kitchen and a large sun room. The bathroom is a testament to the era, with a full size bath, separate shower and quality original tiling. Absolute pristine presentation both inside and out, there are two drive ways providing full access to the rear and a single garage. Offering an abundance of options for the astute buyer, from a fabulous family home, with plenty of room to add a large Garage/Workshop, room for the kids to kick a footy and add a pool or as a future development site (of course subject to all necessary consents) limited here only by your imagination.
