In a sought after location in the heart of cosmopolitan North Hobart, this inner city home has much to offer. Original tiled entry opens to the arched central hallway with warm and inviting oiled Tas Oak floorboards, 12 foot ceilings and picture rails. The main bedroom has an open fire place with hand carved mantle while the second bedroom is extremely generous in size and there is a third single bedroom/study. The stylish neutral bathroom boasts imported Italian tiles with a deep soak bath, shower and toilet. The central living area has a wood heater and a reverse cycle heat pump making for ultimate comfort throughout the home. The stylish Jarrah kitchen is modern, chic and spacious with pantry and quality European appliances. An external wired and plumbed laundry room has ample storage and could be utilised for a workshop space. A paved courtyard for alfresco dining and a secure level area for the children to play. Double off-street parking is a bonus for inner city living. Unfortunately pets are not permitted at this property.
