Welcome to Glenreagh, a picturesque village with a wonderful community in a beautiful region of New South Wales. The surrounding area boasts the Orara River, and the nearby state forest with some wonderful walks and swimming holes. The village still has most of its original dwellings, a well known bakery, hotel, post office and a The General store that also sells fuel. No need to ever leave town. Those who have primary school children there is a public school and a high school bus traveling to Coffs Harbour. This property is one of the original timber homes and is set on 2023.00 square meters (half an acre) the timbers used throughout are just beautiful. There is room to build on or build another dwelling subject to council approval. There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms and closed-in verandahs at the front . The bedrooms are generous in size with plenty of light.The kitchen is a good size with the original fire chimney still intact. The bathrooms are renovated. The spacious outdoor area is a perfect place to entertain family and friends, the whole property is fully fenced with lots of grass areas.The gardens are just so tranquil with the high hedges for privacy and set in a balinese style.There is a well appointed chook shed and yard. Also some fruit trees, veggie patch and herb garden. The shed is huge and great for many different possibilities , space for extra cars and a caravan. The owner has a bar area setup in the shed to entertain guests. There is also the possibility to run a business from the property subject to council approval giving the new owners a truly new lifestyle change.This is an incredible opportunity to make Glenreagh your home with easy commuting to Coffs Harbour and a country drive to Grafton.Take advantage of this offer today and contact us to arrange a viewing and secure your new home.
