Contracts Just Received - Email for Copy If Interested Rolling Hillside with City Views and Substantially Cleared This tightly held piece of elevated land has been cared and tended by our clients for a long period, but time sees the opportunity for a new owner to acquire and build their 'grand design forever home'. With several dams, a dissecting govt lane that provides access to one other neighbour this 16 approx. hectare site is on one title and is contained within the Rural Conservation Zone protecting the green scape of the precinct and giving surety to those that will invest and seek to build their lifestyle home (stca).
