Jenna Andrew Miles

Head turning presence

Demanding passing attention nestled on its corner block, elevation for sunshine and urban to sea views in the distance.

Established landscaping and a neat presentation, a bold and strong brick facade.

It's long term owner status is evident by the cared for up to date maintenance, this makes all the difference.

A clean original painted kitchen with a doorway to the adjoining living space, a floor plan of a wonderful era and options to create open plan.

Well sized bedrooms with built ins and the master bedroom clearly a winner.

A real double garage with remote panel lift door and divided rumpus room, sleep out or workshop at the rear.

Alternatively remove the wall for extra garage/parking space.

Extra storage options are sorted under house where you can also access all floor space.

A solid and clean starter with options to update, investors will love its immediate rentability.
