Introducing 34 Coastwatch Road, Point Cook, brought to you by L&D Realestate. This modern home by Porter Davis exudes confidence and quality, offering four bedrooms, two bathrooms, a powder room, a study, a stylish kitchen and a dining area, along with various entertainment spaces including a home theatre and games room, this property caters to families with discerning tastes. Here are the standout features: The five bedrooms, including a luxurious master with ensuite, offer comfort and convenience. The master ensuite is lavish with its stylish twin vanities, freestanding bath, and oversized shower. The gourmet kitchen is a masterpiece, featuring spacious stone benchtops, high-end Blanco appliances, and ample storage including a butler's pantry. Entertainment options abound with a carpeted games room upstairs and a large home theatre downstairs, perfect for family nights in. The open-plan living/dining area seamlessly connects to the outdoors for easy entertaining. Outside, the alfresco deck overlooks a beautifully landscaped garden designed for low-maintenance living. Additional features include a remote-controlled double garage, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, and high-quality finishes throughout. In terms of location, Saltwater Coast Estate offers a wealth of amenities including parks, schools, childcare centers, and easy access to transport links.
