Don't miss this opportunity to get in to a home of your own in the country! Very reasonably priced in today's market, this charming home is in great shape. Sporting a new roof, lovely original floor boards and loads of character, this home is ripe for a reno or even just a lick of paint to bring her back to her best before she gets her letter from the king. Comfort is assured with reverse cycle air conditioning in the lounge room. The country kitchen adjoins a little dining area and looks out over the back yard. There are two good sized bedrooms at the front of the home plus a formal dining room or third bedroom, plus a sleep-out, making for plenty of options to configure the space your own way. Located on a quarter acre of land in a quiet street, it is only a very short walk to Trundle's shops, schools, medical, sports field, swimming pool and entertainment venues. The established country garden has rear lane access and there is a single carport. Relax on the east facing front verandah with a bevvvy and breathe in the serenity at this lovely property.
