Ray White are excited to present this industrial inspired design home, built by Summit Homes as a display in The Edge estate on a low maintenance 432sqm corner block. Offering 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms plus an enclosed theatre, scullery, an open plan living space with north facing windows, this area will quickly be at the heart of everyday living. The freeform family and dining area is overlooked by a gourmet kitchen compete with a big walk in pantry and hidden scullery, plus a Tasmanian Oak breakfast bar with waterfall ends. The oven and cooktop is 900mm by Westinghouse and there is also a dishwasher. Ideal balance of form and function with raked ceilings, feature timber, metal trusses and exposed brick walls throughout this industrial inspired home. Flowing out from the living space is the double-sized undercover alfresco perfect for entertaining. The spacious master suite features exposed brick walls, a raked ceiling, huge walk-in robe, and an ensuite with double vanity and extra wide shower. The dedicated children's wing offers three generous bedrooms and family-sized bathroom. Keep comfortable all year around with ducted reverse cycle air conditioning and north facing windows letting the winter sun stream in. Located near the main Stockland shopping, retail and dining precinct which is only a few minutes by car. Public transport lines and easy freeway access make it easy to get around. A choice of schools are close by including a 350m walk to the Sheoak Grove Primary School. This lovely home is ready and waiting, so call now to find out more. Why wait?
