Nestled on a generous 2112m² parcel of land, just a stone's throw away from the heart of Dartmoor, sits 34 Lindsay Road-a charming 2-bedroom residence with immense potential. Boasting an original design, this cozy abode welcomes you with a joint kitchen/dining area, perfect for culinary adventures and family gatherings. A separate living space beckons with its warmth, courtesy of a wood heater, while an electric air conditioner ensures comfort year-round. The property also features a practical 7.5m x 4m garage with a concrete floor, offering ample storage or workspace, along with a bore for supplementary water solutions. However, it's the expansive block size that truly sets this property apart. With the majority adorned in lush lawn and easy-to-maintain gardens, the outdoor space provides endless possibilities for relaxation and recreation. To the rear, a breathtaking panorama unfolds, showcasing Dartmoor's picturesque rolling hills and verdant farmland-a serene backdrop for everyday living. While the home may require some tender loving care, it presents an ideal opportunity for first-time buyers eager to enter the market at an attractive price point and relish the tranquility of country living.
