34 Main Street, Cressy, is a charming and peaceful family home that offers a serene retreat away from busy city life. The property boasts a spacious lot with room for outdoor activities, including space for children and pets to play. The convenient features such as off-street parking, a lock-up single garage, wood and garden sheds, and even chicken runs make it a practical and functional space. The natural sunlight inside the home creates a welcoming and warm ambience. The layout is designed with family living in mind, featuring two large living rooms at the front and rear of the home, providing ample space for family members to gather and relax. The three spacious bedrooms with built-in robes offer practical storage solutions. Located a relaxed 25 minutes from the Launceston CBD, this family home offers a balance between city proximity and rural tranquillity. Boasting amenities such as K-10 district school, a destination bakery, and a pub for meals, it is an ideal spot for families or individuals seeking a quieter and more leisurely lifestyle. If you're interested in a peaceful retreat with the benefits of country living, 34 Main Street in Cressy is a fantastic opportunity not to be missed.
