Chad Kirby

$70,000

This vacant allotment comprised of 1013m² is located in a central location in the seaside town of Port Kenny. With a recently updated park area across the road and the water's edge and jetty just minutes away, this allotment represent fantastic value for money. Mains water and power are available to the allotment and the famous Port Kenny Pub that is just a few minutes walk away is the place to meet. Port Kenny is a small township situated on the Flinders Highway, between Elliston and Streaky Bay, overlooking beautiful Venus Bay and catering for the needs of the surrounding mixed farms, local fishing industry and holiday makers. Port Kenny is located just a short 65km from the well serviced township of Streaky Bay and a short 2/12 hour drive to the largest town centre on the Eyre Peninsula, Port Lincoln.
