A gorgeous character home with warmth and charm, or the perfect site for a desirable duplex development – however you view it, this is a special offering in a top location. The level north-to-rear 645 sq m property is in a commanding corner position on a peaceful street. Families will be right at home within the solid double-brick walls of the current residence, with a recently renovated kitchen overlooking a pool and lush gardens. Ornate original fireplaces add grandeur to the large, high ceilinged rooms, while the bullnose verandah decorates the welcoming period facade. Corner blocks of this size are hard to come by in this increasingly sought-after locale, which is minutes from schools, footsteps from parks and 1.6 km from trains, shops and dining at Kogarah CBD. - 645 sq m corner block with duplex potential- Solid character home boasting high ceilings original fireplaces and bullnose verandah- Northerly rear aspect with inground pool and covered alfresco area- Three large bedrooms plus study- Grand lounge room, separate dining and large, elegant kitchen- LUG and storage room with direct internal access- Quiet street minutes from trains, shops, schools, parks and dining
