

34 Rockleigh Street, Thornton, NSW 2322

House For Sale

Friday, 10 May 2024

34 Rockleigh Street, Thornton, NSW 2322

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 5

Area: 1124 m2

Type: House

Garry Fairhurst
0414486103

Jodi Bruce
0413897935

Contact Agent

Going to auction unless sold prior, seeking a new owner to add their own personal touch is this charming, historic home with wooden panel walls throughout and a wide entrance hallway showcasing decorative cornice and ideal living space. The property has been lovingly maintained by the same family for generations. Nestled on a spacious corner block on a generous 1124sqm, parcel of land with dual street frontage, this property offers endless potential for development and expansion. This lovely home features three generously sized bedrooms, each carpeted and equipped with ceiling fans. Additionally, there is an enclosed back room that offers a versatile area and a great opportunity to create the perfect living space for you and your family with endless possibilities to utilise the space as a third bedroom, home office, or playroom for the kids. The bathroom in this home boasts a fully accessible shower, which is ideal for individuals requiring easy entry and exit, such as those in wheelchairs or the elderly. The functional kitchen includes separate dining space, dishwasher and great storage with a window looking out to the expansive backyard. Stepping outside you will discover the single lock-up garage, meticulously kept lawns and gardens, and a fenced yard with rear lane access leading to a separate lock up shed. This outdoor space offers ample storage and parking options, as well as a beautifully aesthetic appeal to the home. This property is to be SOLD on or before the auction on 1st June 2024 at 12.00pm, call today to arrange an inspection.