Transformed into a cute cottage haven, this double-fronted freestanding character home has undergone a charming renovation. Inspired by the nostalgic charm of its original Federation architecture, the interiors display a corbelled archway, leadlight features and an ornate fireplace. Unified by hardwood floorboards and carpet, neutral tones emphasise the high ceilings and sense of space. Three double bedrooms are supported by a full bathroom, there are two living areas, the kitchen is neat and tidy, and outdoors beckon with pretty gardens and a sheltered alfresco deck. A straightforward 10 minute walk to the CBD, this address allows you to shop or grab a meal without moving the car. Perfectly positioned in the Gateway to the Hunter Valley Vineyards and events walking distance to Cessnock CBD, popular pubs & entertainment, Bunnings, Vincent Street shops, and modern shopping centre.- Gorgeous Federation street appeal, weatherboard and iron construction - Air-conditioned formal lounge room featuring a beautiful original fireplace - Casual rear living room flows directly out to the deck, extending the space - Neat kitchen with an electric cooker and dishwasher, good prep area - Three double-sized bedrooms, all appointed with cooling ceiling fans- Picture rails, high ceilings, Euro laundry, wide front verandah, garden shed - Lawned backyard with an ideal north-facing aspect, shaded by a mature tree - Walking distance to all essentials, 10 minute drive to the heart of Wine Country
