

34 Wentworth Street, Bowen, Qld 4805

Professionals

House For Sale

Sunday, 26 May 2024

34 Wentworth Street, Bowen, Qld 4805

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Brendon Baker
0747861577

Offers over $1,000,000

Discover the very best of coastal living in this charming 3 bedroom residence sited on a sprawling 1/4 acre block overlooking serene Port Denison. Boasting effortless access to the marina and the heart of town, the property offers spectacular sea views by day and the lights of Bowen township glittering across the water at night. Step inside to find a modern, spacious, air-conditioned home brimming with an abundance of creature comforts which include a well designed kitchen and living area with sweeping views of the water. Additional features include beautiful polished timber floors which adorn the family friendly living area and quality floating flooring in the light filled bedrooms. The kitchen stands as a testament to style and functionality, beckoning chefs and families alike to gather and create cherished memories. The open plan living area seamlessly flows out onto the full length verandah, the ideal spot to take in those gorgeous sea views and enjoy a coldie whilst entertaining with family and friends. The three spacious bedrooms provide ample accommodation, with the master suite boasting a generous layout including ensuite with a lavish spa and expansive built in robes. Venture downstairs to discover a vast open area offering endless possibilities whether it be as an additional living space, a versatile workspace, or for secure parking. Always dreamed of that long awaited sparkling inground pool or shed to house the toys? Well, there is plenty of room for those too on the sizable 1012m² parcel of land. We invite you to inspect this quality residence and embrace the allure of waterfront living as soon as you are able. Properties such as these are a rare find in the current market so don't delay, make your enquiries today!