The perfect country retreat this home resides on a large 1,786m² allotment and is surrounded by lovely, well established gardens that create a sense of privacy and peace. Only 5 min from the town centre or 2 min from the Jamieson brewery, and next to the Goulburn arm of Lake Eildon what more could you ask for? The home is an entertainers delight with a spacious floor plan, 2 bedrooms with ceiling fans, shared split system for heating and cooling powered by a generous solar system on the roof. The main living area has cathedral ceilings, warm flooring, fireplace and large windows. Your dining options have been taken care of with a dining/ entertaining area to the rear of the home or an enclosed alfresco area for the warmer summer evenings. The established garden are low maintenance and effective. Would you like to grow your own veggies? You can with an enclosed veggie patch. Plenty of water storage with 5 tanks around the home. This property is the perfect and you should take advantage of the District's booming holiday letting market.
