Located in the highly sought-after Torquay locale of Hervey Bay, this five-bedroom Queenslander residence effortlessly combines classic charm with contemporary comforts. Upon entry, the home leaves a lasting impression with its seamless flow from living to dining and a meticulously appointed chef's kitchen, setting the stage for countless memorable gatherings. If you seek generously sized bedrooms reminiscent of 1950s living, this property delivers, featuring additional French doors for enhanced airflow and natural light. With five bedrooms and a study, the layout provides versatile space and options for both family and guests. This residence serves as an idyllic retreat for your family and guests throughout the year, offering moments of relaxation by the pool, indulging in refreshing beverages, and preparing leisurely meals on the barbecue amidst alfresco dining, all while being enveloped in the refreshing sea breezes. Just a short stroll away, the vibrant atmosphere of Torquay awaits, inviting leisurely beach walks, ocean-view coffee breaks, and family enjoyment by the tranquil shores. The property's prime location ensures an abundance of dining options at your doorstep, making daily or evening choices a delightful challenge. With popular restaurants nearby, leave the car at home and immerse yourself in a lifestyle of relaxation.
