Renewed and revitalised in a fabulous convenient location, first homebuyers and downsizers be sure to inspect this neat as a pin two bedroom unit. Freestanding and set on a corner block in a well-maintained development just a few minutes' walk from central Bayswater offering train station, shopping, cafes, restaurants and more. A traditional layout has undergone a smart renovation delivering modern style and comfort with easy care floating flooring and carpeting in the bedrooms. Stone surfaces in the wet areas add upmarket style along with generous storage and s/s appliance including dishwasher in the kitchen with fitted laundry and toilet next door. Two robed bedrooms share a luxuriously updated ensuite effect bathroom and are peacefully zoned at the rear of the home. A really good size backyard offers room to potter or relax and enjoy the sun on the paved sitting area along with garden shed and single garage. With a footbridge around the corner giving easy access to central Bayswater, you can walk to Bayswater Park, walking trails, supermarkets and more (all within 1.4km or less according to google maps).
