Dont miss out on this near new 2 brm 10A dwelling located in the very popular Southport Township. The house is steel frame construction with colorbond steel external cladding. Features include: open kitchen lounge, 2 brms, large laundry/utility room, well appointed bathroom plus carport and front and rear verandas. Water tank and guttering provides the water supply to the property. This is mainly a Natural Bush block with basic gardening around the house. For the keen fisherman the local boat ramp is only minutes away. School bus service runs out front for any buyers with school age children. In addition the new Southport Community centre and playground is only a short walk away. This property is ideal for any buyer wanting a new home but not wanting the hassle of building!
