Domain Illawarra is proud to offer this charming 3-bedroom home that presents a prime opportunity for first home buyers and or renovation enthusiasts. Situated on a generous 581.7 square meter block and situated at the end of a tranquil cul-de-sac with no southern neighbour, and access to a large council reserve at the rear. This property offers, peace, tranquillity, and privacy. With strong foundations this original property features carpet throughout. Step inside to find a cozy living area and 3 bedrooms. An original kitchen with free standing stove and a retro bathroom with shower and bath. An internal laundry with second w.c and underneath lockup garage. An extra-large storage area giving you options. While the home maintains its original charm, it presents a canvas primed for renovation, perfect for those seeking to add their personal touch. With the potential for a granny flat (STCA), this property opens up a world of possibilities for savvy investors or those seeking extra space. Shops, schools, sports fields, and public transport are all in walking distance, ensuring convenience for daily needs.
