Filled with character and romantic charm and showcasing a stunning inground pool and a 9m x 6m powered shed, this unique family home combines traditional elegance with a laidback, coastal vibe. This inviting property is located just steps away from the beautiful beach, providing an exclusive feeling of escapism for the lucky new owners. McGrath Mackay. Guiding You Home. Set privately and securely behind an electric fence and surrounded by lush gardens, this picturesque property is a beach lover's dream. An inviting, full-length front verandah offers an enticing first impression and lays the foundation for the beauty of this much-loved home. High ceilings and polished timber floors greet you upon entry. A direct view of the huge entertaining zone and tranquil backyard from the appealing kitchen and spacious main living spaces generates a fabulous indoor/outdoor flow. Overlooking a quaint sitting area and stately faux fireplace, the brightly lit separate study room offers a beautiful space to work from home. This stunning home comprises multiple living areas, including a huge media room with surround sound. This exceptional space enjoys uninterrupted views of the gorgeous inground saltwater pool, which features a waterfall and spa. The wonderfully proportioned primary suite is located separately from the remaining bedrooms and boasts a spacious ensuite with a double shower, built-in robes and a private patio. If long-term guests frequently visit, this impressive home will ensure their welcome is guaranteed. At the opposite end of the house, a huge bedroom with an ensuite and walk-in robe allows privacy and convenience for your appreciative guests. This spacious beachside beauty is a picture-perfect memory maker. Ideal for families and retirees, this immaculate home will tug at your heartstrings.
