$550,000

Executive living all round in this 4 bedroom, 4 bathroom, 3 living area residence charged with fresh new ideas where everyone has personal space. New age and chic, potential to work from home with private air-conditioned 6x6 media or home office, complete with front and internal access. A soft elegance and a low maintenance approach to design will impress and be a joy to live in. Utilising natural light throughout this 'new age' design is functional for large or extended families with all ensuited bedrooms, and living areas on both levels to carry through all your family needs well into the future. A house that serves many options. Of course the modern family need plenty of off street secure parking and still have plenty of yard to play in, this is achieved nicely with this design. Location, contemporary design and unique features make this a must see for all. Inspections welcome.
