Forthcoming Auction

This discreetly located rural property is tucked away in a quiet cul de sac but has easy access to the arterial roads to town. Set on almost 9000m² (2.5 acres approx) its perfect for the rural lover who does not want to be a slave to the garden but still wants some space between them and their neighbours. With electric front gate and located in a no through street it ensures your privacy is respected. The house is in absolutely immaculate condition and there is little or nothing to be done upon moving in. The house is three bedroom with two bathroom and a lovely living area which leads onto a full length verandah overlooking the pristine inground pool. This property is marketed as a forthcoming auction and given the interest in properties this close in it will attract a lot of attention.
