New to the market is this stunning split level home on Evans Street! Tucked away privately behind the high, color bond fencing you will find low maintenance lawns, 2 undercover carports plus extra off street parking. A front verandah, rear deck + built in BBQ area to the back yard is the perfect opportunity to entertain friends and family! Inside find the large open lounge room with joint dining – split system air conditioning and polished timber floorboards throughout. The kitchen is tucked away with electric cooking, dishwasher and loads of cupboard and bench space. Upstairs find 3 generous sized bedrooms, main with free standing wardrobe, 2nd bedroom with built in and all with timber floorboards and splits. The family sized bathroom features shower over tub, separate toilet and security screens throughout. This property is ready for its new owner! Time to strive at number 35!
