A perfect combination of old-world charm and modern convenience, this home has an excellent open plan layout with high ceilings and gorgeous original polished floorboards. The lounge room at the front of the home contains a cosy Coonara fireplace perfect for chilly nights, which flows through into an open plan kitchen and dining area. The kitchen has been updated and features natural gas cooking, a breakfast bar and plenty of storage space. Two spacious bedrooms both feature built in robes and large windows to capture plenty of natural light and are serviced by a modern family bathroom. The home is comfortable all year round with a split system and Coonara plus enjoy the modern convenience of natural gas instantaneous hot water. Gorgeous cottage gardens surround the home, a stunning walnut tree in the backyard offers plenty of shade & the dual access from Gordon St and Weisser Lane creates the opportunity to park your boat or caravan. Situated at the top of a very quiet no-thru road, this renovated miners cottage is positioned perfectly to capture some of the best views from the front deck. Please note: Online applications via Ignite will only be processed after an in-person inspection of the property has been conducted.
