Contemporary Luxury Looks Like This A home that's spectacular in its sense of contemporary style, featuring a series of luxurious, family orientated spaces, this is a design defined by quality that will clearly endure. Timber floors and smooth flow to an alfresco pavilion complement living and dining proportions featuring an open-plan kitchen where stone benches, an elegant island, the latest appliances and a walk-in pantry are illustrative of this residence's exceptional refinement. A bedroom with a walk-in robe and ensuite downstairs reveals a level of luxury that's immediately, emphatically matched above by three further bedrooms and two flawless bathrooms including a stunning main suite. A central retreat and a fitted study/work from home zone bring their own beauty to the mix while heating/cooling, sensational finishes and a secure garage are naturally part of the story. Altona Gate shops, Millers Junction, The Circle, schools and freeway access mean total convenience completes the picture.
