Set in an elevated position on a quiet road, this 6-Acre residential lot enjoys peace & quiet and impressive views over the D'Entrecasteaux Channel to Bruny Island. The land is mostly comprised of near-level & gently-sloping pasture, with a level area at the top of the property where a good amount of infrastructure is already in place. A great sunny aspect, power on site, fencing in place and handy facilities to make use of while you plan your ideal home. Established access leads right into a levelled area at the highest point of the property where there are already 2 powered studio rooms. Convenient Rural Living zoning includes residential use as a permitted property use. Enjoy a relaxed lifestyle in a coastal area with calm, glistening waters and impressive natural surrounds. Boat ramp & jetty just a few minutes away near the end of the road providing convenient access to excellent boating & fishing. Appealing bushwalking & hiking opportunities all around and just 45 minutes to Hobart. Call today for more information and to arrange an inspection.
