

35 Mons Street, Russell Lea, NSW 2046

Sold House

Friday, 1 September 2023

35 Mons Street, Russell Lea, NSW 2046

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Melissa Strazzeri
0297121828

Antonio Ariola
0297121828

Contact agent

Pinnacle of luxury living, architecturally crafted Standing graciously and positioned on the corner of a premier street, this meticulously crafted residence showcases a flawless modern design that marries a traditional 1920's Californian bungalow. Architecturally designed and displaying the pinnacle of luxury living. Unleashing a striking exhibition of designer finishes in every space. Featuring smart home automation, voluminous interiors spilling onto a sunwashed balcony / terrace, and state-of-the-art appliances promising the very highest standard of comfort family living.- Open plan living with Italian marble flooring seamlessly flowing to landscaped rear private yard- Deluxe Smeg induction kitchen, dual ovens, Liebherr double fridge and wine cooler - Honed marble island with copper double sink, butler's pantry with ample storage - Street level Master bedroom with walk in wardrobe, luxe ensuite with Boffi De Padova tapware- Upper level French Oak Chevron timber flooring, 5th bedroom or second living area with attic storage- Gorgeous queen bedrooms with custom joinery and abundant wardrobe space- Designer marble bathrooms with heated floors, bespoke timber vanities - Cbus system, Viabizzuno Dali lighting, zoned ducted air conditioning, electric curtains, Vitrocsa windows and doors, keyless entry and secure garaging - Inground heated jet swimming pool, dual usage garage / undercover cabana area, ideal for entertaining, 200 inch projector - Easy access to the CBD and close proximity to restaurants, cafes, shops, local schools and waterside parklands.