

35 Platypus Road, Hopetoun, WA 6348

Sold Residential Land

Saturday, 28 October 2023

35 Platypus Road, Hopetoun, WA 6348

Area: 1 m2

Type: Residential Land

Wendy Howell
0438470779

$90,000

This attractive acreage, is fully fenced, power connected to the corner of the block and already planted with fruit trees, eucalyptus and many more trees, with a great aspect in Steeredale Meadows Estate, Hopetoun - a fresh subdivision in our charming seaside town. Approximately 6kms from town and the coast, it enjoys amazing views over the Fitzgerald Ranges in the National Park. The possibilities here are endless. Just under 5 acres, this gorgeous block is zoned "Rural Residential" - this means you can fence your entire perimeter and keep farm animals such as horses and cows, or just your pet dog or some chooks. There are no building time restrictions either, which means you can buy now at this great price, and build later. Start planning that sea change you've been dreaming about. Build your dream home, or just set up a base so you can holiday here and take advantage of our numerous fishing spots, glorious swimming beaches and camping places and the amazing Fitzgerald National Park.