Modern spaces that exude confidence and convey character tell the story of this distinctive, desirable residence where the lines, the tones and the touches of colour create an irresistible combination. Impressive from the very first glance – a front fence in striking red sets the mood - two entirely separate downstairs living domains each link to their own superb outdoor dimensions. The allure of the lounge and its French doors is matched by the appeal of the rear living/dining area's seamless flow to a landscaped backdrop featuring paved alfresco entertaining, pleasing depth and a convenient secure carport. Timber floors, a feature wall wearing fabulous red and an open-plan kitchen of enduring excellence enhance the downstairs spaces beneath three upstairs bedrooms arranged around a full-size semi ensuite bathroom. A substantial, versatile study zone complements the upper level's luxury in a home that delivers refreshing individuality. The location though, is universally attractive! Reach the beach, Williamstown station, Point Gellibrand Coastal Heritage Park and Nelson Place in moments!
