Offers Closing Monday 13th November at 4pm. A peaceful and private setting of approximate 5 acres of prime land on the ridgeline, could be just the lifestyle change you've been searching for. Located just 6 minutes from the Beaconsfield Township, this attractive property has so much to offer. Upon arrival you're greeted by a distinct pillar entry and extensive bitumen driveway which leads to the home. The spacious residence boasts a stunning northerly aspect taking in year-round sunshine and tree views. Superbly constructed in 1984 with an emphasis on lifestyle, orientation and environment, the home has had recent updates including the fully appointed kitchen, two ensuites and the family bathroom. Suitable to families of different sizes and ages, the clever floorplan caters for all. With three separate living zones, guest bedroom with ensuite on the lower level via a spiral staircase, study and the added bonus of a separate home office - ideal for a work from home business. Other key features include a double carport, 7 x 10m 3 bay shed, additional parking, 6kw solar system and mains water. Outdoor aspects are highlighted by a beautiful lagoon style pool and spa overlooked by rich timber decking and verandah. Spend your time on meandering bush walks, lazing in the pool or reading a book on the deck. Whatever your choice, relax enjoy your own private getaway every day of the year.
