This serene and tranquil 10 acres of largely flat useable land sits grounded in nature and wildlife in the cradle of Sphinx Rock and Nightcap National Park. There are stunning views of Mount Warning from everywhere on the property but the view from your large under cover entertainers deck is truly mesmerising. The current owners have completely transformed the home with a modern and stylish makeover throughout. There is lots of shedding, heaps of fruit trees and veggie gardens and ample water from the meandering creek running through the property and the lilly filled spring fed dam. This lifestyle acreage really has everything you want in hobby farm living. Enjoy your afternoon sunsets with your favourite tippie on the deck whilst you watch the wallabies frolic in the paddocks. Just 30 minutes to Murwillumbah and under an hour to Coolangatta airport this can be your life every day or your country getaway.
