(Access via Panyule Road Pyalong.) This picturesque 160 acre (approx) allotment offers the ultimate country lifestyle with opportunity for income through a variety of potential agricultural pursuits. Rolling pasture with captivating views and stands of mature native trees provide a multitude of potential sites to build the home of your dreams (STCA). Leave the hustle and bustle of city living behind and escape to this idyllic property. The scenic seasonal creek flanked by native trees offers a haven for wildlife and a tranquil setting for picnics, camping and children at play. There are three dams providing water for stock, a 13 acre (approx) hay paddock and established fencing to three paddocks. Currently running sheep there is scope to entertain a variety of other pursuits including horses, cattle, free-range pork and poultry to name a few. Alternately one can just soak up the ambience and enjoy the lifestyle. Situated near the peaceful country town of Pyalong and commutable to the city, school buses stop at the end of the road. Make your dreams a reality and act now. Inspection by appointment.
