Expand your beef herd or build your dream home in this idyllic country location comprising 60 hectares (148 acres). Currently running a beef herd and hay crops, this large parcel of land would be suitable for a wide range of agricultural pursuits. Situated a mere 3km from the vibrant rural town of Boyanup, with its well known pub, bakery and general store. Fenced into four paddocks all with cattle water troughs. Hay/machinery shed and steel cattle yards. The pastures are made up of clover and ryegrass with some low-lying areas that stay green well into the dryer months. This property would suit a buyer looking to establish an equestrian centre/horse stud, beef herd or horticultural pursuit. Call Paul Clarke to book a time to view the property.
