This stunning two-storey family home, inspired by Georgian design, exudes contemporary elegance and premium quality in every detail. Boasting a meticulously maintained exterior with a striking rendered facade, it commands attention on a sought-after tree-lined street in Camberwell. Upon arrival, a low-maintenance garden sets the stage for the grandeur within. Inside, the expansive and luminous interior welcomes with Herringbone Parquetry flooring, leading seamlessly from the formal sitting and dining area to a downstairs guest bedroom and study, all thoughtfully zoned for family comfort. The heart of the home lies in its expansive family domain, encompassing living, dining, and a second informal living room, all serviced by a state-of-the-art CaesarStone kitchen fitted with top-of-the-line Miele and Technika appliances. Bi-fold doors open onto a generous covered deck, creating a seamless flow for indoor/outdoor entertaining year-round. Upstairs, a large retreat and four bedrooms, including a sublime parent's bedroom with ensuite and walk-in robe, offer sanctuary. Additional features such as video intercom, alarm, ducted heating and cooling, and ample storage ensure both security and convenience. Positioned for lifestyle convenience: - Zoned for Camberwell South Primary School - Near to Presbyterian Ladies College and Deakin University, this residence is ideally located near Toorak and Burke Roads, Camberwell Junction, and amenities like shopping, cafes, restaurants, and cinemas. With easy access to CityLink for CBD commutes or leisurely escapes to the Mornington Peninsula, as well as proximity to prestigious schools and public transport options, the home epitomizes both luxury living and investment potential.
