Situated on the corner of Peake Terrace and Campbell Terrace, in the Township Activity Centre Zone, these three allotments are 20.12m x 40.23m each (60.35m x 40.23m in total) and are being offered as a whole. Coonalpyn is a service town with a population of approximately 350 people, servicing the local farming community. There are bus routes to primary and high schools in surrounding towns including Unity College in Murray Bridge. For the sporting enthusiast there is a bowling club, golf course, football and netball clubs plus there are several local eateries, including the Coonalpyn Hotel for your Friday night steak and a few beers. Coonalpyn is located on the main highway from Adelaide to Melbourne, approximately 160km to Adelaide, 88km to Murray Bridge, 65km to Keith and 49km to Meningie and the gateway to the Coorong, perfect for those that enjoy a weekend of fishing. And don't forget Coonalpyn is also home to South Australia's first silo art, an initiative that has seen visitors to the town increase significantly and put the small town on the global map.
