With its sweepingly spacious and comfortably bright interior, pleasantly flowing floorplan, and fantastic timber deck and entertaining options, this beautiful three-bedroom home boasts an impeccable atmosphere. Built in 2008 and still in immaculate condition, the home sits just a short 500m from Cessnock CBD for nearest cafes, restaurants and bars while Cessnock Primary & Secondary Schools are within a short walk as well. Step inside from the architect designed facade and find yourself blown away by the colossal open plan dining, kitchen and lounge room. The kitchen is well-appointed, sleekly modern, offers breakfast seating, modern appliances and an abundance of cabinetry. All three bedrooms are sizable and feature built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans, with the primary bedroom also appreciating its own air conditioning. The attached single garage is oversized and features a powered roller door while the main bathroom is located centrally to all bedrooms and offers a bath, shower and toilet. You'll be happy to note the property's amazing entertaining capability, owing mostly to its large, pergola-shaded timber deck. This highly versatile area is perfect for a range of functions, and it indulges in an intimately private atmosphere to match. The backyard is easily managed and features a pebbled fire pit area as well.
