Set in one of the prettiest pockets of the Stunning Chestnuts Estate with an aspect over Millbrook Winery and the hills beyond lies this brilliant family property. Built in 2013 this sprawling country home with wraparound verandahs and a spacious open floorplan offers the large family relaxed hills living at it's very finest. The property boasts a huge 130 metre frontage on a prominent elevated corner block offering sensational sunsets and an aspect far superior to the run off the mill blocks behind. With no neighbours across the road and views through the trees and winery it's privacy is assured. A large crushed gravel driveway and parking area is supremely practical and there's room for cars, boats and caravans. A wide double door entry leads into the home with a large lounge or theatre room off the entry. Through the entry and into the main living space and it's all open plan living area with a beautiful living room encompassing the family, dining and kitchen. The space is incredible with a striking kitchen with metres of stone benchtops and brilliant cupboard space with a walk in pantry as well as a supersize breakfast bar. The dining and family room boast high ceilings and a wood fire keeping the home warm in the coming cooler months, while ducted air/con keeps the home cool in summer. The bedrooms are all BIG with built in robes with the master bedroom the best of the lot, boasting space for the chunkiest of furniture plus a large walk in robe and stylish ensuite plus a supreme aspect over the bush across the road. The main bathroom is a great size with bath and separate shower. For the family that loves to big scale entertain, this home this home has been designed with that at the forefront of it's thinking. Oversize sliding doors lead from the family room out to the alfresco area and all overlooking the elevated pool area. A sparkling large salt water pool with an elegant patio area and a built in kitchen with wood fire pizza oven complete the picture. There's a grassed area for the kids to play, a Small Workshop plus Solar Panels and heaps of other features! This is one special family home that won't be around for long. Con Mathews on 0402 235 535
