Looking for a solid home to make your own. This block constructed home has loads of potential. The hardwood timber floors would polish up beautifully. Depending on how you decide to configure the home it could have four bedrooms or three and a larger living area. The property is situated a few minutes drive, a short cycle or a walk along the bike track into the Devonport shopping precinct and also close to Horsehead Creek boat ramp with a convenient bakery across the road. A quick revamp the home would also make a great investment property.*The information contained herein has been supplied to us by sources which are considered reliable and we have no reason to doubt its accuracy.
